

Ellie V Pullin Pre-School

Commitment to Child Safety and Wellbeing

All children have the right to feel safe, and to be safe, happy and empowered. We support and respect all children, as well as our staff and volunteers.

We are committed to the safety, participation and empowerment of all children.

We have zero tolerance of child abuse, and all allegations and safety concerns will be treated very seriously and consistently with our robust policies and procedures.

We have legal and moral obligations to contact authorities when we are worried about a child's safety, which we follow rigorously.

Ellie V Pullin Pre-School is committed to preventing child abuse and identifying risks early and working to reduce these risks.

Ellie V Pullin Pre-School has robust human resources and recruitment practices for all staff and volunteers.

Ellie V Pullin Pre-School is committed to regularly training and educating our staff and volunteers on child abuse risks.

We are committed to the cultural safety of Aboriginal children and all children from a culturally and/or linguistically diverse background.

We are committed to providing a safe, supportive and nurturing learning environment for children with a disability or experiencing other vulnerabilities.

We have specific policies, procedures and training in place that support our leadership team, staff and volunteers to achieve these commitments.
